
CIT Graduate Student Policies

Cross Registration

Cross-registration is available through neighboring institutions (e.g., the University of Pittsburgh, Duquesne University). The grade earned for courses completed during the Fall or Spring semester will appear on the Carnegie Mellon transcript. Course and/or distribution credit may be granted by petition to the department for courses not used for a previous degree requirement.